

Event Handler API

About

The Event Handler API (beta) was introduced in XNAT 1.7 to handle events thrown by the Automation Service. This service will likely be deprecated in favor of the XNAT Event Service in future development.

Permissions

These endpoints are only accessible to XNAT Administrators

API Spec

(Open API documentation is only available to view online)