

DICOM Anonymization Settings API

About

The DICOM Anonymization Settings API allows site administrators and project owners to query and set anonymization scripts relative to their site or project. Users can also retrieve the "default" anon script as needed.

API Spec

(Open API documentation is only available to view online)